

Thanks for your email

When doing a small renovation at a house i am preparing for sale, i explored getting off the gas, but the cost was prohibitive to upgrade the power supply to the house to support induction cooktop instead of gas cooktop, tying the landtax to efficiency and reduction in gas use could be a way to promote the change